NIF Membership Criteria Standards:

The Network of Iraqi Facilitators is glad to welcome new members. To be accepted in as a member of the Network of Iraqi Facilitators, it is important to comply with the membership criteria.

Membership criteria of the network of Iraqi Facilitators:

The Membership criteria for the Network of Iraqi Facilitators is classified under three fundamental groups:

1. Core group: consists of highly experienced members in conflict managements and dialogue facilitating, and those who are compliant to credence standards.
2. Associate group: consists of members who are busy with other projects to implement enough projects on peacebuilding.
3. Support group: consists of members that have religious, tribal, or social leading attributes, and have the ability to prepare the appropriate conditions to carry out negotiations and dialogue.

Membership criteria standards:

- Core group membership criteria standards:

1. Signing the MoU between Sanad and the NIF members.
2. The commitment of the members to stay clear from any political affiliation.
3. Presenting a record confirms the implementation of at least three projects in the period of (2011-2013). Those projects should be related to peacebuilding or conflict management.
4. Presenting a record confirms participation in the Advanced Conflict Management Training courses.
5. Participating in about 80% of summed activities made in period of (2011-2013) in regional meetings and conferences of the network.
6. Participating in 80% of the regional meetings and conferences related to NIF in 2014.
7. Presenting a record confirming implementation at least two of peacebuilding/conflict management projects during 2014.
8. Providing reports needed from Sanad for peacebuilding organization.

- Associate group membership criteria standards:

1. Signing the MoU between Sanad and the NIF members

2. The commitment of the members to stay clear from any political affiliation
3. Participating in conflict analysis training courses (on the website)
4. Participating in conflict analysis of religions training courses (on the website)
5. Presenting a record confirms having a leading role in working in the of Iraqi civil society peacebuilding/conflict resolving field.

- Support group membership criteria standards:

1. Making at least one research on peacebuilding/conflict management during 2014, or presenting a record document confirming implementation of at least one project related directly to peacebuilding and/or conflict management during 2014
2. Providing the logistic and coordinating support for the regional meetings concerning the network.
3. Participating in the basic training course in conflict management since organized in 2014
4. Participating in conflict analysis training course since organized in 2014
5. Presenting needed reports from Sanad for peacebuilding organization.
6. Participating in 50% the regional meeting and conferences of the network held in 2014.